

Does your bar or restaurant require you to attend a Responsible Beverage Server Training?

Several Ocean County municipalities, bars, and restaurants require all servers to be TIPS® (Training for Intervention Procedures) trained and certified.

The DART Prevention Coalition is offering a FREE TIPS® Training Program for restaurant bartenders and servers.

ON-PREMISE FOR SERVERS AND BARTENDERS

Monday, August 9th

10 a.m.—2 p.m.

Ocean County Fire and EMS Training Center 200 Volunteer Way, Waretown

The TIPS® training session focuses on assisting servers of alcoholic beverages to:

- Recognize the signs of intoxication
- Prevent the sale of alcohol to minors
- Handle alcohol-related situations with greater confidence
- Use proven strategies to prevent alcohol-related problems
- Certifications are valid for three years

FREE Program. Light breakfast will be provided.

Registration Information: Limited Seating. Please call Amy Piacente-Desch at 570-401-0906 or amy.piacentedesch@rwjbh.org
